

The Anti-Covid-19 Good Thoughts Poem

The fresh spring breeze of April in the afternoon
The free time weekend after a long working school week
The TV show after school to have a little break before homework

Daniela Arenas

A happy dog gnawing at his bone
Running around my favourite tree,
Playing hide and seek with my dad,
Ho! Delicious smell of cake hummm really delicious.

Georgina Ayala

A brown rabbit nibbling on my fingers
Snowballs flying through the air
The taste of the sea on your lips

Alba Blas

A smiling yellow sun in the summer
A family together on Christmas night
A black night with the stars dancing
A baby moon growing laughing

Esther Calzas

Happy cat chasing a ball of yarn
Stroking his soft fur
Cat falling asleep on my lap

Victoria Marín

The smile of my dog when I arrive home.
The big ice cream with my friend on holidays.
The smell of freshly baked cake.

Vanessa Nastas

Playing with my dog chasing frogs
Funny messages on my phone
Musicians, songs, artists,
VIP guests to liven up your parties.

Mario Olmedo

Tears of laughter with friends
The smell of pages on a new book.
Jumping, running dog before going for a walk
The smell of mom's biscuits in the oven.
Rustling leaves of in a windy day.

Genesis Orozco and Jesus Porras

Wagging tail dog when I come back home
His soft hair on my feet when I wake up,
Tasty pink strawberry ice cream
Laughing at photos we took and the nonsense we did.

Álvaro Sánchez & Marwa Zerrad

The thank you of someone I've helped,
The thing I asked for, when it's in my hands,
My beautiful, smiley 10 in maths.
